“ My beautiful Amanda. I met her when she was 19 and became good friends. She was like a sister to me. I was lucky to be her maid of honor on her special day. She was a good friend to me, she was smart, caring, loving, sassy and spoke her mind. I will miss her very much, I will miss her smile, her voice, her sarcasm. I will miss seeing her but I know shes now at peace rejoicing with her parents. she is no longer in pain, no longer sad and no longer alone. She will be missed and never forgotten. "Everyone leaves footprints in your memory, but the ones that leave footprints in your heart are the ones you will truly remember." May you rest in peace my dear friend. I love you.

“ Such beautiful words, and lovely pictures. She sure did speak her mind. I'm going to miss that.

Jenny Fulkman - February 20 at 11:19 AM

“ Thank you. Shes truly missed and will never be forgotten. Cant believe shes no longer with us.

“ I have so much I could say about Amanda, I could write a book. She was funny, expertly witty, sharp-minded, fun, and so much more. She always had a story for every situation. Her unique humor and laugh lit up the room where we shared so many days together at work. She always had a hand in the office shenanigans. One year she helped a co-worker gift wrap every single item on my desk as a birthday prank. There's so much more I could say, but I'll just say I'm glad you were part of my crazy work family for so long, and I have so much love for you, and I can't believe I'll never hear your cheerful voice again. Say hi to Kathy May for me

“ Friends for 25 years - I love you as if you were my sister . May you be at peace I still don't want to believe this is real.

Tanyce Rigsby - February 12 at 05:57 PM

“ I just want to extend my condolences to you. I worked with Amanda for a lot of years, and your name is very familiar. I'm with you--don't want to believe it's real. I still feel like I'm going to wake up from a bad dream. So incredibly sad.
