“ I cleaned for Betty for over 15 years while she lived in Kansas. She was one of a kind. She loved her jewelry, bright purses and matching shoes. She hid all kinds of chocolate in drawers near her bed. Her and I would talk for hours while I was there. I always felt like I could confide in her about anything and she had spilled out her heart a time or two to me as well. She worked for many years with TWA, loved her husband of many years and her only child, Martin. Betty was so much more to me than a client. She was a friend, a confidant, and she was just like a grandmother to me. I will never forget her. I love you Betty. "You little shit!"
