“ It's been a year since you left this planet. I wish more than anything I could of been given a chance to say good bye to you but your heartless greedy son prevented that. And won't even allow me to have any of your ashes. At least we won't have to worry about him anymore he is not part of our family anymore .Well I love and miss you a lot. We had many good times together.

“ Janet is my mother, and I don't know how she got to Readlands, California.

Or why.

This it is crazy to me. It makes no sense to me. It was all done by her son, Kannen.

He stepped in about 10 years ago to take over her life and control it.

He removed her daughters from her life to gain control over Janet's assets, her home and cars and everything inside of it.

Sad, but true.

Enough about that.

The end could have been so much better for her, and it breaks my heart that it ended like this.

But Autumn and I still love her and always will. She is our mother. And realize what she was dealing with.

This is a short look into who Janet is:

Janet Loie Umbarger Baldwin

She was born in Los Angeles on Hope Street on January 31st 1949. Her father and mother were Jack and Barbara Umbarger. They lived in Hawthorne, California. She had a brother Richard and when they were children, they were close.

They were even tap dance partners at one time. That had a lot to do with her grandmother Eddie. Eddie was the opra singer on broadway in Ny also the actress of the family. It was her dream for Janet or Richard to follow in her foot steps. That did not happen.

Instead Janet went on to become a hippie and a young mom.

She attended Hawthorne High School from the Graduating class of 1968 and soon after she had her first daughter Tiffany, with a man named David Gregerson from Palos Verdes Estates. They did not marry. Janet decided they should go their own ways.

She than married a man named Pat Leonard. They lived in Manhattan Beach with Tiffany just a baby. She worked a the velvet turtle as a driver and he was a liquor store attendent. And a drunk. Janet divorced him after two years.

Then she meet a wonderful man. Craig Baldwin from Redondo Beach/ Riverside, with whom she spent most of her life. She and Craig were a great couple; they had so much fun together in the earlier years. Going on weeked trips and having parties at there house. You could say they were living life in the fast lane.

Janet was the wild party girl and Craig was the hot rod man. She showed Craig the beauty of nature and Yosemite. And the party trips to the river. Janet loved to travel and explore new places. Being a flower child – and a true Hippie, San Francisco was a favorite vacation spots.

Janet also enjoyed nature a lot. She went to almost all the national parks in the west half of the united states. During her life time.

Janet also enjoyed going to concerts. She loved music. When you walked in her house the stereo was always on and music was playing. At one point she even helped produce a Reggie band at her and craigs home. She was born at the right time to love rock n roll music. A few of her favorites were the beatles, especially john lennon, Janice Joplin, the Rolling Stones and Led Zeppin, The Doors, fleetwood Mac, Jefferson starship, edgar winter ect. Her last concert was the Rolling Stones in 2005 with her daughter Tiffany and Greg we all had a great time together. Oh and Jan and Tiffany saw Jefferson Starship in San Pedro on a battle ship in the harbor that was fun also.

Janet had many friends. She had four friends that were a huge part of her life friend forever. They are Pat and John and Jim and Terri. Jim and Terri were the more down to earth friends while Pat was my moms lets go out and party friend. The two of them together were a perfect match. The two of them had such a great time when they got together talking laughing and talking all night long. Those two were the life of the party. While John just sat back and smiled. There are so many more stories I could tell and too many other people to list here. I wish I could but it would take me a life time to write about everyone. People liked Jan's fun spirit and good personality. Janet loved to dance and party and have fun, but she also wanted to have a family life too. So she did. She and Craig had a son Kannen and daughter Autumn together. She had the family she wanted. They married and bought a house in San Pedro, California, and that is where she raised her 3 children.

A wonderful thing about Janet she never judged people. And if you needed someone to talk to she was always there to listen and give you the best advise she could. Her home was always open to anyone in need of a place to stay.

Then one night we were all in the car and a drunk attorney crashed into our car and Janet got hurt very bad with head injuries. She was having seizures and she was never the same person again after that. It didn't help that she was given strong drugs by her doctors, to help her. Which they did not help her at all, they hurt her and her life took a turn for the worst.

I'm going to skip all that. If you were around, you already know that ugly part.

Janet tried to get her life back on track again. She became the PTA President at Bandini Street School. She was very happy that her oldest daughter was getting married to a man she thought was wonderful. She helped plan Tiffanys wedding. That was a happy proud time in her life.

Janet was a talented woman and an artist she loved to paint like her mother and grandmother did. She would paint anything that she could from canves to trays to furniture. She also was a great cook. And made every holiday and birthdays special for her family. She would make your birthday cake a theme just for you. She enjoyed holidays a lot. Made all of our halloween costumes and put so much thought in to them. She made every package at christmas look like it was wrapped at a fine department store. She also made every holiday special with her wonderful dinners inviting anyone who didn't have a family to spend it with to join us at our dinner table. Every holiday her tables and house were decorated for the occasion and looked festive and beautiful. She loved entertaining that is for sure. She was a special woman. And she was very resourceful she could make nothing into something.

Things were starting to get rocky in her relationship and soon after Janet divorced Craig. She had a hard time with that. Because she didn't know how to express her feelings she still loved Craig but did everything wrong and ran him away. But it was best for both of them. Janet did have a mean streak in her which was ugly.

So, she had to restart her life again working for the Aquarium of the Pacific as a Special Event Coordinator - a party planner. She also worked at Lisa's bon Appetit as a caterer doing Palos Verdes parties. She enjoyed those jobs a lot. Things were going good for her.

A few years later her son joined the Marines and her daughter Tiffany and son in law Greg moved home again. Which made her happy. And she had her other daughter Autumn there with her too. Those were good times for her. We all were able to live together with no problems.

Then the best thing happened for Janet when she became a grandmother. Her daughter Autumn had a baby girl Zoe. Janet loved her granddaughter, Zoe with all her heart. She and Zoe spent a lot of time together. Janet watched Zoe everyday while Autumn went to school to become an RN. Zoe was her everything.

About 5 years ago her health problems began she had a bad heart. She was hard on it during her life time. And she had a lot of stress put on her at the end by her son. Not saying it was his fault. But a bad heart and stress don't mix well.

I know Janet is now in a better spot than she was. She is free to be herself again a fun loving spirit. I wish I could change the ending to this but I can't and now I'm having to piece together what happened at the end. Because my brother cut my sister and I out of her life and that hurts a lot. I will say one thing no matter what was said I know my mother always loved Autumn and I and she for sure loved Zoe. And we all love and miss her. May she rest in peace and she will live on in all of us.

I want to tell Jan one thing to have fun be you and I am thankful to of had you as my mom. You gave me the freedom to be the person I am today. You never pushed anything on me you let me make my own choices and you helped me marry a wonderful man who gave me a great life and now you two are up there and he will look out after you until i get there. Im sorry we couldnt say good bye but you know why. I love and miss you so much. I feel so alone 1st my husband then one of my best friends now you and i didnt get a chance to say good bye to any of you. But i know you three are going to be there when I get there so Ill see you than. And we will be ok down here you taught Autumn and I to be strong women. Unfortunately you didnt teach your son the same. I love you jan and miss you so much already.
