Comments

“ Dean And Velma Jeanne took me to their home many times when I was a child. They had their own family and while I was a first generation cousin they treated me just like they did their own. I know that they were the kindest, most honest, loving family anyone could be lucky enough to have. They were always there for me and have remained one of the brightest lights I was lucky enough to have in my life. I will love you always.
Forever, Sally Way
